TELEPHONE INTERVIEW SUMMARY

The undersigned attorney called Examiner Safaipour to discuss the Final Office Action issued for this application on 11 Jan. 2008. In particular, the undersigned attorney expressed his firm belief that the "broadest reasonable construction" arguments appearing on p. 3 of the Final Office Action were wholly unreasonable and not legally maintainable. The Examiner understandably indicated that some time would be needed to consider these concerns. The Examiner kindly promised to review the case and to call back with further thoughts on 5 Feb. 2008. The Examiner made no commitments regarding disposition of the application.

Respectfully submitted,

COATS & BENNETT, P.L.L.C.

Michael D. Murphy
